Re: United States v. Dorothy McAllister
19 Cr. 700 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

My client Dorothy McAllister respectfully asks for the Court's permission to celebrate Christmas Day with family at the home of a family friend in Westchester County. I have provided the specifics of the name and address of the friend to Pretrial Services and to the Government. Ms. McAllister proposes to leave home on Christmas Day at 12:30 p.m. to go to the celebration and to return home by 8:00 p.m. the same day.

Ms. McAllister previously was given permission to attend a Thanksgiving family dinner at the same friend's house and everything worked out as it should have.

Ms. McAllister is in compliance with the conditions of her release. Neither the Government nor Pretrial Services have any objections to Ms. McAllister's Christmas request.

Wishing the Court and its staff a happy Holiday season.

Respectfully submitted,

Clinton W. Calhoun, III
